Mexico compact bus charging solutions

EON customized compact bus charging solutions for urban depots in Mexico. Featuring remote intelligent O&M and adaptive power distribution, the system fits limited station space, ensures stable operation and improves charging efficiency for urban public transport fleets.

So far, we have supplied charging equipment for 18 bus depots in Ensenada, with a total of 150 charging piles deployed.

